"C"-Virus actions vary

A RUN ON TOILET PAPER was the first reaction to the Coronavirus as Clyde shelves mimicked the nation. Local stores sold out, restocked and sold out again - some limiting shoppers to two packages.

Earned Income tax levy on Tuesday ballot

A half-percent tax on earned income is the sole levy on the MARCH 17 ballot by the C-GS Board of Education to raise $1 million per year for ten years. Treasurer Meghan Rhode emphasized the tax will NOT be collected off dividends, pensions or other unearned income.

ELECTIONS ON No school 3 weeks? Care centers close

CLYDE reacted to the serious flu that is sweeping the Country.

Many are skeptical about the Ohio "State of Emergency" and pondering contact restrictions.

- Families feel the biggest jolt as nursing homes and care centers limited visitors to one per patient. Then Ohio prohibited all visitors.

- Clyde Schools will include Spring Break next week as part of Ohio's 3-week closure.

- State championships in all sports have been cancelled including wrestling.

- 9 p.m. closings were ordered for all restaurants and bars except drive-ups and carryouts until further notice.

New definition of HOME-SCHOOLING after Spring Break. Clyde students' "Virus Bags" will have two weeks of school work. Students also have Chrome Books and be able to do some on-line studying.
